5.5 PUBLIC COMMUNICATION SERVICE - COIN AND COINLESS

5.5.4 CONFINEMENT SERVICES OFFERED BY NEVADA BELL

(N)

A. DESCRIPTION

Confinement Services offered by Nevada Bell are public or semi-public, coinless telephone devices provided on the premises of local, county, state or federal confinement facilities, where potential usage by inmates participating in institutionally authorized telephone programs warrants establishing the service.

The customer, for purposes of this service, is the confinement facility who subscribes to Confinement Services offered by Nevada Bell. All calls placed from a confinement service telephone will be billed to the called party.

B. REGULATIONS

1. Confinement Services offered by Nevada Bell will be limited to exchanges where equipment, facilities and operating conditions permit.
2. Confinement Services coinless telephone devices will be provided for the use of originating collect calls to numbers in the North American Numbering Plan (NANP) only.
3. Nevada Bell will block calls, including but not limited to:
  - a. Terminating calls outside the NANP jurisdiction.
  - b. Directory Assistance.
  - c. Nevada Bell service numbers, such as 611 and 811.
  - d. Emergency services, such as 911.
  - e. Other operator service providers.
  - f. All WATS, 800, 900, 976-types services, both toll-free or pay-per-call numbers.
  - g. Telephone numbers as determined by the confinement facility administrators for the integrity and security of the facility, its employees and the public.
  - h. Telephone numbers as determined by Nevada Bell, use of which could result in fraud, including but not limited to, numbers that would allow the caller to place calls for which the originating number is billed.
4. Confinement Services offered by Nevada Bell will comply with all other rules and regulations of the Public Service Commission of Nevada that govern the provisioning of telephone service to inmates of confinement facilities within the State.
5. Nevada Bell will provide features and services as required by the confinement facility administrators and where facilities and operating conditions permit.
